Dear Parents and Carers,

Monday was World Kindness Day; over the last two weeks the theme for our assemblies has been about recognising ourselves and the impact we can have on the wider school community by a simple smile or kind comment.

Our assemblies are only part of how we recognise children's efforts, they are built up in class and around school, and I always love it when children are desperate to show their work to me, other classes or teachers. Our children are building such pride in their work and what they do, it is lovely to see.

Thank you to all the parents who completed the Parent Survey, we will reflect on your comments and continue to grow, doing the best we can for each and every child in our school. As always though, staff and leaders will always encourage you to discuss concerns straight away so we can act upon them. Working together is the best for our children - as lots of the children say,

"Teamwork makes the Dreamwork!"

Remembrance Day

The children from Y1 to Y6 demonstrated their respect for others superbly on Friday, 10th November when they visited The Methodist Church. The children paid their respects to the fallen with two minutes silence and reflected on those who have served us and still do using poetry, writing and song. The children were impeccable in their quiet reflections. #teamCSL

Nursery

I am pleased to announce that we are only a week away from finding out about the nursery opening and application process.

It isn't too early to apply for your funding code. Google, "Help with childcare costs", visit the Lincolnshire County Council website or speak to the school office for more information.

Year 5—R.E through poetry

Well done to Tyler-Jay in Year 5 for producing a wonderful poem linked to his learning in R.E—a super example of cross curricular learning!

Always keep promises or get consequences,
Never lie, never lie or else you will get no pie,
Never be mean to your Mum or Dad or else they will be very mad,
Avoid false rumours—they are lies, if you hear one make sure not to cry,
Do not take advantage of the poor—give them all they need, then you have done your good deed

Another fantastic poem by Year 5 was created by Alex...

Be kind to your Mum and Dad, never get mad,
never be sad,
In daily life be honest,
Always try your very best,
Never be shy and never cry,
Do not tell any lies,
Don't be mean to the poor because one day you might be sat on that floor,
Avoid gossip, never cause drama,
Then you will get good karma.
